Colleges and Institutes Canada 2016 Conference

Colleges and Institutes Canada (CICan) is the national and international voice of Canada's publicly supported colleges, institutes and polytechnics. Colleges and institutes work with industry and social sectors to train 1.5 million learners of all ages and backgrounds at campuses serving over 3,000 urban, rural and remote communities in Canada.

The CICan 2016 Conference will be hosted by Champlain Regional College, Cégep Garneau, Cégep Limoilou and Cégep de Sainte-Foy from May 29-31, 2016 in Quebec City, QC.

Inspiration is the creative spark and breath that leads to great achievements. The 2016 Conference will focus on this important theme, which drives innovation, development and discoveries. Presentations will reveal how colleges and institutes promote change through innovative practices and approaches in teaching and learning, applied research, and collaboration with business, industry and partners within the community. The Conference will include pre-conference activities, networking meetings, keynotes, panel discussions and workshops, all opportunities to meet inspiring people and to be inspired.

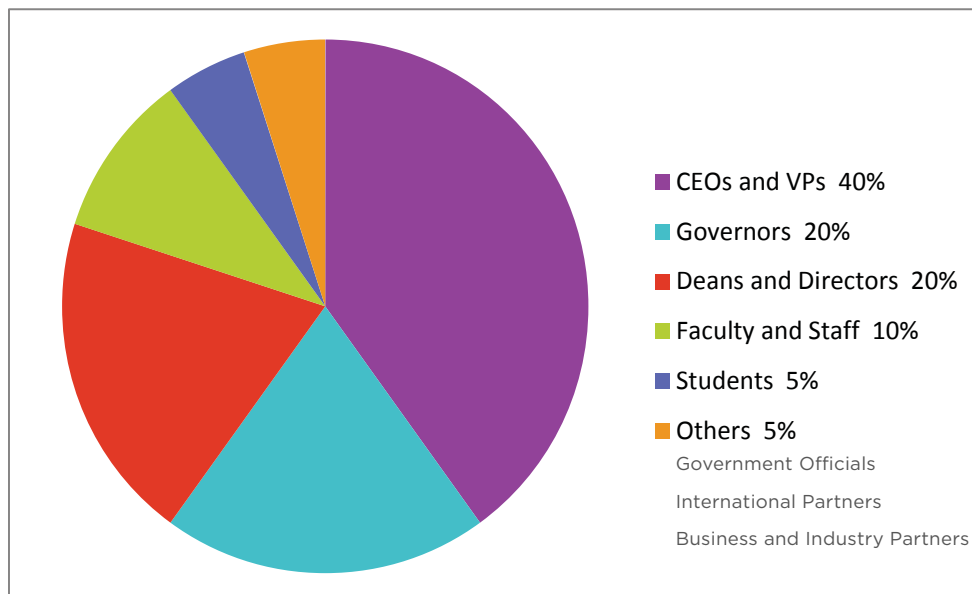

Highlights for CICan 2016

- 6 specific program streams
- Dynamic Keynote Speakers
- 3rd Annual Business and Industry Breakfast
- Exciting special events & lucrative networking opportunities
